III. Information Items

A. Alpine Elementary Spotlight Report, Mr. Jason Snyder
   1. Principal Snyder highlighted the True Success curriculum the elementary buildings implemented this year, which focuses on social and emotional learning. Vertical alignment from kindergarten through 5th grade will help make this program successful. Preparing students to be college and career ready begins in the elementary school and True Success will help our students with the social and emotional aspect of this readiness. Alpine Elementary Social Worker Chris Boyd shared an example lesson. Mr. Boyd also shared how data is monitored and utilized.
   2. Principal Snyder introduced their KSSN staff working with our Alpine families. Goals for the year are improving attendance, increasing mental health services, community partnerships and meeting basic needs of students as well as their families. One example of the success of KSSN is truancy has been reduced to 8%. KSSN also provide mental health services to Alpine families. Community partnerships that were highlighted included: tutoring, Kids Hope, Big Idea Assemblies (character education), and providing weekend dinner bags for students to take home. The family support provided includes many areas to encourage and assist families to work toward a better life for their whole family. The KSSN team, along with a couple Alpine teachers, delivered meals to families at Alpine Meadows to make sure students had meals when we recently had several consecutive days of school closure due to inclement weather.

B. Student Representative Report, Emily Bajema
   1. Student Representative Bajema provided a highlight of important happenings in each of our schools. The report is available upon request.

C. Superintendent Report
   1. Safety and Security
      a. Superintendent Hopkins discussed the school closures over the past three weeks. He noted the unprecedented weather but emphasized the focus would be on student and staff safety rather than the number of days school has been cancelled. He noted six (6) days are forgiven by the state with three (3) additional days available to be forgiven with a waiver filed by each individual district. We will seek a waiver from the state given this winter weather is an anomaly. Any additional releaf would need to come from legislative action. Absent additional relief, our published district calendar indicates the school year will be extended into the week of June 10 if makeup days are needed.
   2. Bond Construction Update
      a. Construction at Zinser Elementary is going very well and continues to be on schedule. New classrooms, bathrooms and extended learning center will be open after spring break. Concrete has been poured in the new gymnasium with a scheduled opening date in August 2019.
      b. Construction at Central Elementary has begun and is ahead of schedule.
      c. The facility study committee has held one meeting with another one scheduled in the near future.
3. Count Day
   a. Count day is Wednesday, February 13. If school is cancelled on February 13, count day would become the first day students are back in session after the cancellation(s).
   b. This pupil count represents 10% of our state funding for the upcoming school year with the fall student count counting toward 90% of our state funding.
